TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Casa Cook Kos being part of the Thomas Cook Group stands for a new breed of 5 star luxury beach hotels, inspired by the spirit of our times.

Casa Cook Kos is the latest development of Casa Cook Hotels, on the Greek island of Kos. The new Casa Cook Kos was designed and developed by a creative team of renowned designers and specialist contractors with passion and unique talent.

Spatrade International Ltd was selected to act as our Specialist Spa equipment supplier and contractor, with the responsibility to deliver Spa equipment and systems of the highest quality and design that meet our standards and strict specifications, while at the same time create the appropriate Spa ambiance. In addition, Spatrade International Ltd has assisted us with the design of the Spa areas and provided us with useful guidelines, based on their long experience and know-how.

We hereby confirm that the performance of Spatrade International ltd was excellent and has superseded our expectations in terms of quality, timely delivery & general compliance to their obligations. The equipment delivered is of outstanding quality and performance.

We highly recommend Spatrade International Ltd for distinct Spa centers within luxury Hotel environments.
